

of the wounded. The others all but two was out of company, & the other two was out of Co "K" and Co I, one of our wounded died last sabbath The other is getting along very well. I now will give you all of their names that was killed and wounded out of our company, Oliver T. Lewis, John M. Sarchett, Willis Cook. These are the names of the killed of our company, the names of the wounded, are John S. Hodges, Milton O. Evans evens was the one that died, sundy. I don't remember the names of the others well on fridays night last there was four of our cavely picketts killed, and one since that time, on fridays night there was ten killed at "Fort Holt" right across the river from our camp, in Kentucky, well there is a big fight going on at Columbus at this time, the troops are all gone from here but ours, they are gone to columbus, they are all gone from Fort Holt but about one regment, also from Caro, They have been canonading all day down
