The community was greatly shocked and overshadowed with a pall of gloom when the news was circulated Friday morning concerning the death of Mr Clem Hill of

Descendants of Michael HILL

Omaha, who was formerly one of Vail's most prosperous young farmers and one of most highly respected citizens. The deceased had been taken ill about three days previous with an attack of flu, he was immediately rushed to the hospital where it was thought that he was recovering until Thursday when his heart action became worse and he suddenly passed into the great beyond, Thursday evening, April 19. Mr Hill was well known around here, having been born and reared to manhood in our midst, he was a man who always possessed kindly humor and was of a friendly, charitable and broad minded disposition. He was a devoted son and a kind brother, and was known to all for his good fellowship and fair dealings and this great loss will be keenly felt, not only by his immediately family, but also by a large circle of friends and acquaintances. He leaves to mourn his untimely bereavement his mother, Mrs Elizabeth Hill, and two sisters, Frances and Anne, with whom he made his home until the time of his death, also one brother, James, also of Omaha, besides hosts of living relatives and friends. The Funeral services were held at St Ann's church at Vail at ten o'clock Saturday morning, Rev Father J J Sullivan conducting a Requiem Mass following which a large concourse of relatives and friends followed the body to its last earthly resting place, the family lot in St Ann's cemetery. This funeral was also under the charge of the American Legion boys.

Death of M. . . .

WELL KNOWN

Born May 10, 1858 in to America When In to Crawford in

On Wednesday Feb 12, 1913 in the quiet of his home at Vail, Iowa the spirit of M J Keane, a prominent citizen of the county, took its flight from an illness covering a period of more than three months. The death of this well-known man was, therefore, not unexpected, and yet when the final summons came the loss seemed more than his family and friends could bear.

Mr. Kean was born May 10, 1858, at Perth, Canada. He was a son of Denis and Mary Keane. When a mere infant he came with his parents to the United States, taking up their residence at Syracuse, N Y, where they remained but a short time when they removed to Chicago and later to Davenport, Iowa, where they remained for three years. After this they purchased a farm near Wheatland, in Clinton County, where the family resided until the death of the father. In 1875 the deceased came to Crawford county, where he located on a farm in Hayes township and where he continued to reside until about twenty-seven years ago, when he moved into the town of Vail, and continued to reside there until his death, with the exception of one year when he lived in Denison during the time he filled the position of deputy auditor of the county.

On Nov 13, 1878, he was united in marriage with Susan Hill, who survives him, and in addition he is survived by one daughter, Marie, and one son, Ignatius. He has four brothers and four sisters living, as follows: Mert, of Alliance, Neb; John, of Hartington, Neb; James of Des Moines, Iowa; Dennis, of South Dakota; Mrs. Dan McCarthy and Mrs. M Carey, of White Owl, SD; Mrs. P Byrnes, of Cadming and Mrs. James Hickey of Vail.

The deceased was a man of (paper torn) and his ability was such as to attract the attention of his neighbors who naturally were inclined to select him for public office. He was mayor of the town of Vail for a number of years and was justice of the peace for ten or twelve yeas, which office he held at the time of his death. No man in the community was better advised on public affairs than was Mr. Keane and it was always a pleasure to meet him and to listen to his discussion of public matters. He was democrat in politics, but was liberal enough in his views and criticisms to recognize the good in other parties as well as his own. In the discharge of his duties in public office he was regarded as eminently fair and just.

Funeral services were held on Friday last at 10 o'clock from St Ann's church, when a solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Rev Peter Murphy. After mass Rev. Jas Murphy delivered an impressive and consoling sermon and eulogized many of the lovable qualities of the deceased and in which he expressed not only his own deep sorrow, but that of the entire community.

The pall bearers were: M R McGrath, Thomas Hickey, E J Ryan, George Dieter, J Murphy and Thomas Ratchford. As an expression of the respect in which the deceased was held, all of the business houses in Vail were closed during the funeral services. The body was laid to rest in St Ann's cemetery immediately after the funeral service.

There were so many of the relatives and friends of the deceased living at a distance who attended the funeral that it would be impossible to mention all of their names. His brothers, Mert, of

Descendants of Michael HILL

Alliance, and John, of Hartington, were both present and a delegation of fifty or more of the friends and admirers of the deceased from Denison attended the funeral.

After a long siege of sickness, Mrs James Long passed into the great beyond Tuesday night Feb 26. She was a patient sufferer to the last, and we hope that she is now enjoying perpetual rest. The funeral took place Thursday Feb 28th from St Ann's church. Obituary next week.
- Her obituary was published in The Denison Bulletin on 7 Mar 1907.²⁴ Died: At Vail, Iowa, Feb'y 26th, 1907, Mrs. Sarah L Long. Sarah Hill was born in Westmoreland County, Pa, July 3, 1866. She was married about 17 years ago to Mr. R J Long, who preceded her in death several years since. She leaves surviving her, two children Miss Gracie and Master Jimmie and an aged mother Mrs. M Hill, and several brothers and sisters. Her funeral was held from St Ann's Church, Rev Father Murphy officiating, on Last Thursday. A Requiem High Mass was celebrated, and Father Murphy very feelingly spoke of her life, her suffering, and the Christian fortitude with which she lived, suffered, and died; the respect in which she was held, and the sympathy manifested by the people for her little ones and the bereaved relatives. Her pallbearers were M R McGrath, M T Keane, G W Nicholson, J P Cranny, F J Ethel, and Maurice O'Connor.

Mrs. Long had been ill for a long time with an incurable disease, but her love for her children, and her hopeful spirit, caused her to keep as active as possible for one of her frail physique, and although she knew for a long time before the end came that recovery was impossible she never seemed to lose hope, or to despair; she was cheerful to the very last, and without any fear of death, she met it as she would welcome sleep to the tired, and wearied, worn out, body. May her soul rest in peace.

"Wedding Bells"

Popular Young Vail People United in Marriage Tuesday

St. Ann's church was the scene of a very pretty and impressive wedding at nine o'clock Tuesday morning, when Miss Mabel E. Dugan and Mr. James Hill were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. R. Conway, of Chicago, an uncle of the bride, assisted by Rev. James Murphy.

Rev. Fr. Conway also celebrated a nuptial high mass. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Nell Dugan as bridesmaid and Mr. Martin McCullough as best man.

As the bridal party entered the church and approached the altar, Edward Dugan sang "Oh Promise Me". The High mass was sung by Miss Nell Hickey and Edward Dugan. The latter also sang the "Ave Maria". As the bridal party left the church, Miss Hickey sang "Violets."

After the ceremony at the church, the bridal party drove to the home of the bride's parents where a four-course breakfast was served to the immediate families.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. & Mrs. C. M. Dugan and is one of Vail's charming and talented young ladies. She was born here and grew to womanhood in our midst honored, respected and loved by everyone. She attended St. Ann's Academy from which institution she graduated from both the academic and musical courses. She attended the Iowa State Normal College, Cedar Falls, and finished her musical education at the Columbia Conservatory in Chicago. She is an accomplished musician, and a charming young lady in every respect and is honored and loved by a large circle of admiring friends.

The groom is the son of Mrs. J. J. Hill and is one of the prominent and prosperous young farmers and stockman of the county. He is a young man of the highest type of character and integrity and enjoys the confidence and esteem of all who know him.

They left on the noon flier on their honeymoon trip and after their return will make their home in Vail.
