

Members of the Woman's Relief Corps held their regular meeting at Odd Fellow hall last week, and at that time elected their officers for the coming year. Miss Edith Ragenberg will serve as president for the coming year, succeeding Mrs. George Raveling.

Rock Rapids Reporter
December 20, 1928

Rebekah Birthday Party Last Friday—

Mrs. Eva Sater, Mrs. Zella Kohrt, Miss Otilla Johnson and Miss Edith Ragenberg are members of the Rebekah lodge whose birthdays were celebrated at the monthly birthday party Friday evening, May 20. A delicious birthday luncheon concluded the evening. Hostesses were Miss Margaret Guyan, Mrs. Olive Horr, Mrs. Millie Busch, Miss Stella George and M. F. Stenzel.

Lyon County Reporter
May 6, 1932

Betsy Ross Circle Meets—

The Betsy Ross circle met in the home of Mrs. A. M. Jepson on Friday, for a special business session. On Tuesday, members of the club met with Miss Edith Ragenberg, and spent the afternoon working on a quilt which the Circle will present to some needy family here.

Lyon County Reporter
November 19, 1936

Kill-Kare Club
Meets Today—

The usual weekly afternoon meeting of the Kill-Kare club will be held today at the home of Miss Edith Ragenberg. Sewing will occupy the hours and as a diversion the hostess will serve dainty refreshments.

Lyon County Reporter
Thursday, March 2, 1933 - page 5

Relief Corps Meets
Tuesday Afternoon—

The Woman's Relief corps met Tuesday afternoon of this week in the I. O. O. F. hall. After the business meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Charles Soltow and Miss Edith Ragenberg, to celebrate Mrs. Jess Kellihan's birthday.

Lyon County Reporter
Thursday, March 2, 1933 - page 5