

"George Ragenberg took all the ready cash his father had last Sunday evening and left for parts unknown. It is reported, however, that his sister has received a letter from him, stating that he is in Freeport, Illinois and will not return home. This is surprising, for George was considered a sensible boy and he had a good home and kind parents. He is about 17 years old."

The Alton Democrat
13 June 1891

The Review
Rock Rapids, Iowa
Thursday, 4 January 1894

"... G. W. Ragenberg of Matlock spent several days this week visiting his uncle, John Frohloff. He goes to Sioux Falls tomorrow to visit a cousin."