

Rites Tues. for Mrs J. Ray Pexton 12-29-80

Mrs. J. Ray Pexton, born Frances A. Bishop in Hebron, Neb. Jan. 15, 1894 died Dec. 22, 1980 in Springfield, Illinois. She married J. Ray Pexton, a druggist and son of a pioneer druggist in Harlan, Iowa on April 21, 1918 who predeceased her Nov. 16, 1963.

Mrs. Pexton was a member of St. Paul's Episcopal Church and St. Catherine's Guild in Harlan and affiliated with Christ Episcopal Church, St. Cecelia's Guild and the Wednesday Sewers in Springfield, a past president of Chapter A.P., P.E.O., past president of the Delphian Society, a volunteer at Myrtue Memorial Hospital, secretary-treasurer of Eastern Star.

She lived the past 11 years in Springfield, Illinois. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Robert A. Stuart of Springfield, three grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. One daughter predeceased her. She was a resident of the Presbyterian Home in Springfield at the time of her death.