

Harry B. Wiig, 88

ONAWA, IA. — Harry B. Wiig was born Nov. 6, 1888 in Omaha, Nebr., and died in Burgess Memorial hospital in Onawa, on Sept. 26, 1977, at age 88 years, 10 months and 20 days. Mr Wiig operated a department store in South Omaha for a number of years and then moved to Harlan where he operated a 5c to $1.00 store for several years before retirement. He married Nettie Vredberg in 1907 in Omaha. He has been a resident in Onawa and Omaha the last 14 years. He was a member of the Congregational church in Harlan.

Survivors include his two daughters, Mrs Darold (Gladys) Moon of Onawa; and Mrs Henry (Harriet) Moberg of Omaha, Nebr.; and his one son, Wallace H. Wiig of Omaha, Nebr.; four grandchildren, Wallace Jr., Warren, Judy and Tom, and nine great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his wife on Mar. 9, 1963 in Harlan, two brothers, two sisters and one grandson.

Services were held on Thursday, Sept. 29, 1977, at Crosby-Kunold-Burkett Funeral Chapel in Omaha, Nebr., with Rev. Everett Epperson, officiating.

Casketbearers were Wallace Wiig, Jr., Dr. Thomas Wiig, Warren Moon, Martin Wiig, Cye Moen and Herbert Ehm. Burial was in Graceland Park cemetery in Omaha, Nebr. Arrangements were made by Pearson Funeral Home in Onawa.
