

Leo John Bruck, 72

MANNING — Leo, son of Jacob and Barbara Betz Bruck, was born Dec. 8, 1914. He attended Manning High School, Loras College in Dubuque, and was graduated from Iowa State University.

On July 24, 1951, he married Patricia Mock. He made his home in Manning where he was the owner and operator of the Manning Creamery Company for many years. He was active in civic and community affairs in Manning and served in various capacities with the Iowa Dairy Association. He was a member of Sacred Heart parish in Manning. He had been in failing health for several months and died on Sept. 28, 1987 at Manning General hospital at age 72 years, 9 months and 20 days.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his sister, Lucille; as a young girl and his wife, Pat. He is survived by his daughter, Barbara (Mrs Paul) Spieker of Princeville, Hawaii; two grandchildren; his wife's son, Steven P. Mock of Houston, TX and Steve's children, Jamie, Justin, Kasey and Karsten Mock.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated Oct. 1, 1987 at Sacred Heart Church, Manning with Rev. Fr. Ralph Reinhart as the celebrant. Burial was in the Manning City cemetery with the honorary bearers being Kenneth Spies, Dr. John Hornberger, Bonnie Joens, Lyle Arp, Lyle Joens and Hugo "Shorty" Dammann. Serving as casket bearers were F.J. Zerwas, Claus Bunz, Warren Puck, Duane Boersma, Leroy Dammann, Eddie Fischer, Duane Monson and George Graves. Ohde Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.