

Dorothy Bode, 78

Dec. 11, 1927 - Nov. 2, 2006

ATLANTIC — Dorothy Joy Bode was born Dec. 11, 1927, in Griswold, daughter of Martin Dean and Hyla Amanda (Vedane) Wooley. She was raised in Griswold and was a 1945 graduate of the Griswold High School.

March 14, 1946, Dorothy married William "Bill" Bode at her parents' home in Griswold. She was a member of the First United Presbyterian Church in Atlantic, where she was a Deacon and took part in the Voyagers Club. She also did volunteer work for the local food pantry. Dorothy worked at the former Super Valu Grocery Store and at HyVee, both in Atlantic. She died Nov. 2, 2006, at Nebraska Methodist Hospital in Omaha at age 78.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents, Martin and Hyla Wooley; her husband, Bill, who died in 1995; three brothers-in-law, Willard Rothe, Eugene Curtis, and Everett Bode; a sister-in-law, Brenda Bowie; her niece, Cheryl Landon; and nephew, Don Curtis. She is survived by her son, Larry Bode of Polk City; her daughter, Judy (Lorrell) Borkowski of Harlan; a grandson, Derik Bode and his significant other, Kenna Jackson, both of Woodward, OK; three sisters, Virginia Rothe of Griswold, Josie Curtis of Atlantic, Helen Landon (Leland) of Atlantic; a brother-in-law, George Bode, Jr. of Lewis; three sisters-in-law, Clara Hansen of Lewis, Donna Nyberg of Omaha, NE, and LaQuita Bode of Independence, MO; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held Nov. 6, 2006, at the First United Presbyterian Church with Reverend Don Seeger officiating. Burial was in the Oakwood Cemetery at Lewis. Hockenberry Family Care in Atlantic in charge of arrangements