

Cindy Boham, 48 ✓

Feb. 15, 1957 - July 9, 2005

IRWIN — Cindy Lou (Black) Boham was born Feb. 15, 1957, to Dorothy (Carpenter) and Fred L. Black in Pisgah. She grew up in Woodbine and graduated from Woodbine High School in 1975. After high school, she moved to Dunlap and was a waitress in Denison at the Eat More Café. She then worked in road construction for 13 years. She also drove a truck for Omni Engineering and Western Engineering. She was currently working at the Kum & Go in Harlan.

In 1985, Cindy married Charlie Mohn. The couple lived near Kirkman and then moved to Irwin. Charlie died Dec. 12, 2002.

June 19, 2004, Cindy married Larry Boham. The couple lived in Irwin. She died July 9, 2005, at Missouri Valley Community Hospital at age 48 years, four months, and 24 days.

Cindy was preceded in death by her father Dec. 18, 1987; her husband, Charles Mohn, Dec. 12, 2002; sister, Shirley Black; and stepdaughter, Heidi Boham. She is survived by her husband, Larry; children, Misty (Phillip) Pool of Kimballton; Tiffany (Calvin) Wehr of Harlan; Matthew Mohn of Irwin, Tina (Louie) Schwery, of Woodbine; Terry Mohn of Woodbine; stepdaughters, Holly Boham of Brigham City, UT; Abby Boham of Sioux City; nine grandchildren; mother, Dorothy Black of Woodbine; four brothers, Dick Black of Logan; Kenneth Black (Sandy) of Carter Lake; Marvin Black of Jacksonville, FL; Norman Black (Kathy) of Omaha, NE; sister, Marilyn (Chuck) Hexom of Malvern; and other relatives.

Funeral services were held July 13, 2005, at the Fouts Funeral Home in Woodbine, with Rev. Ted Sieck officiating. Burial was in the Woodbine Cemetery with Ken "Blacky" Blackwell, Donnie Campbell, Danny Eakers, Al Peterson, Bill Snyder and Bob Snyder casket bearers.