

Harlan, Iowa News Advertiser, Friday, January 19, 2001, pg 5-A

Ruth Bradley, 71

July 23, 1929 – Dec. 22, 2000

PERSIA – Ruth A Bradley was born July 23, 1929, in Logan to Earl and Audrey (Dunn) Wilson and grew up in the Persia area.

She married Raymond Bradley March 1, 1948. She had been an Avon representative for 20 years and had worked at Persia Variety and was a receptionist for Schumacher Funeral Home in Persia, was a sub mail carrier, did painting and wallpapering and had cleaned several business places. Raymond died June 22, 1966. She was a member of the Persia United Methodist Church and the former Banner Club. She died Dec. 22, 2000, at Jennie Edmundson Hospital in Council Bluffs.

She is survived by two daughters, Raymona (Greg) Crozier of Persia; Rachelle Birtweil of Persia; and a son, Robert Bradley, and friend, Pam, of Persia; a sister, Norma Kroeger of Mesa, AZ; special friend, Quentin Hoffman of Persia; 14 grandchildren; nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives.

Funeral services were held Dec. 26, 2000, at the Persia United Methodist Church with Pastor Walt Bernard officiating. Casket bearers were grandsons, Jared, Jeremy, Brian and Bradley Crozier and Kasey and Kelly Bradley. Burial was in the Harris Grove Cemetery southeast of Logan. Hennessey-Schumacher in charge of arrangements.
