

Terry Clyde, 67 ✓

RUSSELL — Terry was born October 30, 1943 in Winterset. He attended Chariton schools where he met Pamela Sue Cooper. They married on August 22, 1965. Born to their union were Ruby Lorraine and Randy Curtis.

Terry had a variety of jobs including, the Elevator, Johnson Machine Works and The Chef, before finding his calling as a care provider for people with mental illness. Terry and Pam worked at the Lucas County Home before moving to Harlan, Iowa to run the County Care Center. During his 30 years of service, Terry made many friends and produced acres and acres of garden. He held a very special place in his heart for everyone that he worked with.

Terry enjoyed fishing, hunting, mushrooming, his "honey do" lists, fixing things, shooting pool and archery, playing cards and a round of golf, spending time with family and friends, and telling a good story or two.

Terry was preceded in death by his mother Donna Green and sister Bobby Evans. Terry is survived by his wife Pamela; daughter Ruby of Osceola; son Randy of Chariton; father George Green and stepmother Mary of Altoona; sisters Kim (Marion) Thompson of Lucas and Debbie (Greg) Carlton of Chariton; and a host of many, many special nieces, nephews and friends,
