

Deceased Name: DEAN CHRISTOPHERSON

Local contractor Dean H. Christopherson, 75, died March 9 at Providence Hospital.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday at Holy Family Cathedral. Pallbearers will include Al Maffei, Eldon Dufek, Fred Oetzman and Harry Crites. A visitation will be held from 5 to 8 p.m. Wednesday at Evergreen Memorial Chapel, Eighth Avenue & E Street.

Mr. Christopherson was born Oct. 7, 1916, in Bassett, Neb.

He moved to Alaska in 1951 and worked as a small contractor. He retired in 1980, and has since built a new home and cabin.

Mr. Christopherson was a World War II veteran, and was a member of the Pioneers of Alaska, The Alaskans, Anchorage Elks Lodge 1351, the Carpenters Union, and the Tupin Pinochle Club.

He enjoyed spending time with his family, being at the family cabin on Kenal Lake, and playing cards.

Mr. Christopherson is survived by his wife of 45 years, Elaine; his daughter, Mary Kennedy, his daughter and son-in-law, Rita and Dean Van Home; his grandsons, Nathan and Eric Van Home, all of Anchorage; his brother, Robert, of Morrisonville, Ill.; and his sisters, Mary Skaats of Scottsdale, Ariz., and Ruth Pease of Anchorage.

His family suggests memorial contributions to the American Diabetes Association, Alaska Affiliate, 3101 Penland, Anchorage, 99508-1908.
