

Harlan Ia. Tribune • June 17, 1997 • 5B ✓

Steven James "Kuhn" Juhl, 22

Feb. 9, 1975 - May 5, 1997 ✓

ATLANTIC - Steven J. "Kuhn" Juhl, 22, of Atlantic died May 5, 1997, at his home. The son of Wilfred John Sydney Kuhn and Joyce Ann (Krueger) Anderson, he was born Feb. 9, 1975, in Worchester, MA. He attended the AvoHa Community School in Avoca and North Central Community College in Fort Dodge. He did carpentry work for the past 2 1/2 years and had been employed by Independent Contractors, Inc. in Avoca.

He married Dawn Marie Juhl Sept. 20, 1996, in Atlantic. He was a member of the First Baptist Church in Atlantic. He enjoyed working on cars and helping others.

He was preceded in death by his paternal grandfather, Paul W. Kuhn; maternal great-grandfather and maternal great-grandmother, Fred and Ruth Krueger; maternal grandfather, Harvey L. Krueger; maternal grandmother, Norma L. Krueger Ellerbeck; two cousins, Jeannine Levy and Aaron Sonntag. Surviving are his wife, Dawn of Atlantic; two daughters, Seaira Dawn of Atlantic and Samantha Marie of Avoca; his mother and stepfather, Bob and Joyce Anderson of Atlantic; his father, John Kuhn of Wichita, KS; two brothers, Jason Kuhn (April) and Mark Kuhn all of Linden; a brother, Alex Kuhn of Augusta, KS; a sister, Lara Kuhn of Augusta, KS; paternal grandmother, Gertrud Kuhn of Bear Lake, MI; maternal grandfather, Eldon Ellerbeck (Joan) of Avoca and mother-in-law and father-in-law, William (Kathern) Juhl of Atlantic.

Funeral services were held May 8, 1997, at the Roland Funeral Home. Burial was in the Oak Hill Cemetery west of Brayton.