

Eloise Lytle, 81

Sept. 17, 1925 - Feb. 19, 2007

ATLANTIC — Eloise Jones Lytle was born Sept. 17, 1925, the daughter of Seabron O. and Beulah M. (McCarty) Jones in Ideal, Macon County, GA. Eloise grew up and lived on a farm near Ideal, GA, and graduated from Ideal High School. After graduation she moved to Atlanta where she worked for the Federal Government and met her future husband, Harry.

Eloise married Harry Lytle June 24, 1944, at the Druid Hills Baptist Church. They moved to Iowa in 1946, and lived in Harlan, and Omaha, NE, before settling in Atlantic in 1948. While living in Atlantic, she and Harry taught various types of dances. She was a member of the First Baptist Church in Atlantic, the Cass County Memorial Hospital Auxiliary and the ABW. She was also active in the American Cancer Fund Drives in the 1960s. Eloise enjoyed and had a great deal of fun teaching dance all over Southwest Iowa. She died Feb. 19, 2007 at the Cass County Memorial Hospital in Atlantic at age 81.

Eloise is preceded in death by her parents; son, Marvis in 2003; brothers, Johnny, Frank, Earl, Roy and Gene; and sisters, Irma Chapman and Idoma Moore. She is survived by her husband, Harry of Atlantic; son, Noel and his life partner, David Mayersky of Atlanta, GA; grandchildren, Darcy Lytle of Colorado Springs, CO, and Heather Bushner (Dave) of Hardenville, MO, and their children, Maverick and Savannah; daughter-in-law, Kenna Kenworthy of Gainesville, MO; brothers, Herbert Jones of Perry, GA, ML Jones (Myrtus) of Ideal, GA, and Bruce Jones (Vi) of Vero Beach, FL; sister-in-laws, Helen Jones of Panama City, FL, Mary (Babe) Lytle, Vivian Lytle and Virginia Lytle, all of Harlan; sisters, Anne Johnson (Harry) of Reynolds, GA and Marguerite Hedrick of Stone Mountain, GA, nieces, nephews and cousins in Iowa and Georgia.

Memorial services were held Feb. 24, 2007, at the Hockenberry Family Care Chapel.
