

Donna M. Miller, 57

April 27, 1942 - Feb. 21, 2000

CORNING – Donna Mae Miller, daughter of Harvey and Opal (Spriggs) Chapman, was born April 27, 1942, in Cromwell. She graduated from Prescott High School in 1959.

She married Harry Lewis. Harry died in May of 1976.

December 31, 1977, she married Larry Miller at the Presbyterian Church in Corning. Together they were partners in the Chevrolet dealerships in Corning and also in Harlan. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church and the Boots & Bows Square Dance Club and the Chevrolet Business Council. She died Feb. 21, 2000, at Alegent Health Mercy Hospital in Corning, at age 57 years, nine months and 24 days of age.

Preceding her in death were her parents; first husband, Harry; and a brother-in-law, John Gibson. She is survived by her husband, Larry Miller of Corning; her six children, Kim (Roger) Pokorny of Omaha, NE; Tammy (Paul) Baier of Orient; Pam (Ramon) Haley of Corning; Rick (Marife) Lewis of Norwalk; John (Kathy) Miller of Tempe, AZ and Sara Miller of Corning; eight grandchildren; a brother, Don (Nancy) Chapman of Lenox; and a sister, Evelyn (Lowell) Daniels of Polk City.

Funeral services were held Feb. 24, 2000, at the Presbyterian Church in Corning, with Rev. Ken Rummer officiating. Burial was in the Walnut Grove Cemetery in Corning. Honorary casket bearers were John Breitbach, Ralph Dillinger, Leo Gard, Harold Agnew, Carl Gebbie, Melvin Birt, Ronald Walker and the late Dick McKee. Casket bearers were Doug Dunn, Carl Dolch, Randy Gibson, Brian Chapman, Glen Dolch, Jim Gibson and Dave Gibson.

