

Elda Mohr, 92

April 2, 1913 - Dec. 7, 2005

OAKLAND, NE — Elda Irene Mohr was born April 2, 1913, in Scranton, rural Green County, to James N. and Margaret C. (Rogan) Hermanson. Elda graduated from Scranton High School in 1931.

Sept. 25, 1927, Elda married Clarence Henry Mohr in Emmett, ID. Before moving to Oakland in 1962, the couple had lived in Emmett, ID, Denison, Harlan and Corning. She was a member of the First United Methodist Church for over 70 years. She was an active member of the United Methodist Women and held many offices. She and her husband were both active in the American Legion. In Oakland, NE, she was employed at the Albertson olive factory, the Dairy Queen and the Oakland Heights Nursing Home. She later volunteered at the gift shop at Oakland Memorial Hospital. She died Dec. 7, 2005, at Oakland Memorial Hospital in Oakland, NE, at age 92 years.

Elda was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Clarence (April 30, 1987); five brothers; and two sisters. Survivors include her two daughters, Janet (Stanley) Rys of Omaha, NE; Joy (George) Serovy of Ames; sons, James (Nancy) Mohr; Jeffrey (Deanna Nelson) Mohr, both of Tucson, AZ; four grandsons, Lance Rys, Channing (Kristin) Rys, both of Omaha; Kyle and Clay Mohr, both of Tucson, AZ; two granddaughters, Kathryn Mohr of Pueblo, CO; Karlie Mohr of Tucson, AZ; great-granddaughter, Sylvie Grace Rys of Omaha; four sisters-in-law, Nona Hermanson and Lillian Hermanson, both of Bayard; Alice Osborn and Betty Mendaz, both of Los Angeles, CA; and other relatives.