

Barbara O'Connell, 58 ✓

June 14, 1945 - Feb. 19, 2004

HARLAN – Barbara Jo O'Connell, the adopted daughter of Margerette and George Osum, was born June 14, 1945, in Minneapolis, MN. She attended St. Mary's Catholic School for Girls in Minneapolis. After graduation, she studied nursing in Chicago, IL, where she became a Registered Nurse.

Feb. 19, 1964, Barbara married Arlan Rodger Greve in West Pointe, NE. Three children were born to this marriage. For many years the couple lived in Omaha, NE, where Barbara worked as a nurse at Methodist and Clarkson Hospitals, and Arlan worked at Methodist Hospital as a Lab Technician. After Arlan died in Bloomfield, in 1983, Barbara eventually moved to Harlan to be near her children. Barbara died Feb. 19, 2004, at her home in Harlan, at age 58 years, eight months and five days.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband, Arlan Greve. She is survived by one daughter, Angela Riesgaard of Kimballton; two sons, Michael Greve of Lincoln, NE and Mark Greve (Kimberly) of Westphalia; nine grandchildren, Krystal, Jonathon, Nicholas, Arlen, Jacob, Sequoia, Barbara Jo, Savannah and Samantha; and other relatives.

Memorial services were held Feb. 28, 2004, at Pauley Jones Funeral Home with Rev. Robert Hoefler of St. Michael's Catholic Church officiating.
