Larry Ray Page, known to friends and family as "Porky" was born on May 7, 1956 to William and Elaine (Olson) Page in Harlan. He attended school in Harlan, graduating in 1975. Following graduation, he enlisted in the U.S. Army Reserves and served until 1980. In May of 1978, Porky moved to Storm Lake and later to Alta where he served the remainder of his life. He worked in production at Bil Mar Foods for 20 years. In 1998, he attended truck-driving school, graduating with his CDL certificate. Over the next 10 years, he worked maintenance jobs and served with the Alta Fire Department until a major injury kept him home on disability. Porky was a simple man who enjoyed simple things: riding motorcycles, short drives around town, eating at Subway, cheering on the Vikings, and playing cards at Clem's. He loved spending time with family and friends and he looked forward to the "Page Family Christmas Campout" every summer. Family and friends will remember him for his caring ways and funny sense of humor.
