

Bonnie Marie Claiser Wallen, 53

April 24, 1945 - Aug. 4, 1998 ✓

AVOCA - Bonnie Marie Claiser Wallen, the daughter of Clinton and Ruby M. Walton Claiser, was born April 24, 1945, at Creston, and grew up in Kent. She graduated from Lenox High School in 1963. She was employed as a computer typist for CDS (Computer Data Services) in Harlan. She was a member of Harvest Community Church in Atlantic and was very active in support of missions. She died Aug. 4, 1998, at her home at age 53.

She was preceded in death by a sister, Cindy Sue Claiser. Surviving are a daughter, Becky Lenihan (Pete) of Co. Bluffs; a son, Clint Ashburn of Carson; three grandsons, Kayla Ashburn of Atlantic and Andrew and Sara Lenihan of Co. Bluffs; her parents, Clinton and Ruby Claiser of Livermore, CO; two brothers, Roger Claiser (Elaine) of Urbandale and Davy Claiser (Joyce) of Lenox; a sister, Connie Claiser Maurer (Dallas) of Lyons, CO; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held Aug. 8, 1998, at the First Assembly of God Church in Atlantic, with Pastor Tom Freeman of Harvest Community Church in Atlantic officiating. Graveside services were at Graceland Cemetery at Creston. Roland Funeral Home, Atlantic, in charge of arrangements.