

Art Wattier honored today at Randolph's St. Frances

Services for Arthur C. Wattier, 68, of Belden will be held on Thursday (today) at 10:30 a.m. at St. Frances Catholic Church with the Rev. Donald Stortz officiating. Music will be furnished by Mrs. Pat Rogers, organist, and Mary Rose Backhaus, soloist. Interment will be in the St. Frances Cemetery under the direction of the Johnson Funeral Home.

Honorary pallbearers will be Kevin Janssen, Fritz Pfeiffer, David Hay, Robert Berner, Robert Meyer, Donald Bauer, Brian Eddie.

Pallbearers will be Clarence Wattier, Thomas Wattier, Kenneth Wattier, Gerald Wattier, Michael Wattier, Wayne Wattier.

Arthur Clovis, son of Clovis and Clara Book Wattier, was born July 17, 1920 at Randolph. On January

7, 1947 he was married to Betty Schlueter. The couple farmed and he was also in the trucking business. He moved from the farm in 1973 to Randolph and later to Belden.

He passed away unexpectedly at his home in Belden on Sunday, September 25, 1988.

Survivors include two sons, Jack of Laurel and Scott of Norfolk; three daughters, Kathy Chasteen of Orange City, Calif., Jane Pospisil of Randolph, and Karla Gonzalez of Camarillo, Calif.; eight grandchildren; four brothers, Walter of Hadar, Paul and Vincent of Randolph, and Carl of Crooked River Ranch, Ore. and one sister, Mrs. Howard (Alice) Dominisse of Rancho Bernardo, Calif.

He is preceded in death by his parents and two brothers.